Faith Promise Sunday will be March 4. Daryl and Verna Stanton are missionaries from Africa. They will be here to speak in our morning service. Come hear what God is doing in their part of the world. We will receive our Faith Promise pledges, which pays for our mission program throughout the year, at the end of the service. Our mission budget helps with the Nixa Backpack program, gives assistance to area families in crises, supports our two sponsorship children, helps with meals for other children in foreign lands and helps with support for missionaries and their families around the world. Be in prayer as to what God would have you to give to help fund our mission ministry this coming year.
